PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND REPENTANCE

O Lord our God, when it comes to sin, salvation, sanctification, and service we often look at our own abilities, instead of your abilities. We focus on what we do not have, instead of all that you do have. When your Spirit speaks to us, our response can be more skepticism than sureness. We get stuck on the fact that we do not know what to do, but not the fact that you already know what you will do. So, we confess our sins, and we seek your forgiveness, and your perspective, praying the words Jesus taught his disciples to pray saying:

(Quiet Reflection)

RESPONSIVE READING: Psalm 90:1-17 (NASB95)

¹ A Prayer of Moses, the man of God. Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations. ² Before the mountains were born or You gave birth to the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

³ You turn man back into dust and say, “Return, O children of men.” ⁴ For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it passes by, or as a watch in the night.

⁵ You have swept them away like a flood, they fall asleep; in the morning they are like grass which sprouts anew.

⁶ In the morning it flourishes and sprouts anew; toward evening it fades and withers away. ⁷ For we have been consumed by Your anger and by Your wrath we have been dismayed.

⁸ You have placed our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

⁹ For all our days have declined in Your fury; we have finished our years like a sigh. ¹⁰ As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years, or if due to strength, eighty years, yet their pride is but labor and sorrow. For soon it is gone, and we fly away.

¹¹ Who understands the power of Your anger and Your fury, according to the fear is due You? ¹² So teach us to number our days, that we may present to You a heart of wisdom.

¹³ Do return, O LORD; how long will it be? And be sorry for Your servants. ¹⁴ O satisfy us in the morning with Your loving kindness, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

¹⁵ Make us glad according to the days You have afflicted us, and the years we have seen evil. ¹⁶ Let Your work appear to Your servants and Your majesty to their children.

¹⁷ Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; and confirm for us the work of our hands; Yes, confirm the work of our hands.
